Etherial Adds to His Many Victories-Yonkers Meeting Comes to an End with a Good Attendance.

New York, August 28.—Superb weather conditions prevailed for the wind-up at Yonkers and the attendance compared favorably with the best patronized days of the meeting. The track had dried out well overnight and rendered the going fair, although it favored pronounced mud runners more than it did fast track horses. There was little or no police interference in evidence and not a single arrest was made.

last track horses. There was fittle or no ponce interference in evidence and not a single arrest was made.

The hearings in the cases of the three men arrested on Thursday, Henry Flittner, Archie Zimmer and W. Fessenden, were postponed until September 16. It was generally expected that the trio would be discharged for lack of evidence and everybody was surprised that such was not the case. Mr. Flittner has for many years acted as Barney Schreiber's eastern agent, Archie Zimmer is a reputable trainer in the service of T. D. Sullivan, one of the most powerful politicians in the state of New York and Wallie Fessenden is simply a trainer out of present employment without any book connections whatever. When searched sixteen cents and a Personal Liberty League button were found in Fessenden's possession. Ite was told that he had accepted a wager of $500 on Campaigner from some man the last time that horse started.

"Well," exclaimed the irate horseman, "that's news to me. The horse lost and there must be $500 coming to me. Show me the fellow and your in with it."

"Well," exclaimed the frate horseman, "that's news to me. The horse lost and there must be $500 coming to me. Show me the fellow and your in with it."

The feature of Empire City's final card was the Frivolity Stakes. The selling conditions enabled the crack western colt, Dick Roller, to get in under the absurdly light weight of 107 pounds. It proved mere play for the fleet son of Dick Welles to dispose of the mediocre quarrette opposed to him. Erbet, the second choice, finished a game second and Gliding Belle dropped into an unexpectedly, easy third. The winner was conceded to be the surest down backed him to the limit, despite the short odds. As ausual, the two-year-old race, which opened proceedings, furnished a splendid attraction. Five, including Fashion Plate and the almost invincible Etherial, tried conclusions here. Etherial disposed of his opponents in wonderfully impressive fashion. Mr. Khapp's colt finished a good second, but was simily not near good enough to cope with the sensational Star Shoot gelding.

Master Robert was probably the best horse of the afternoon's depleted card to race, and won the first mile race after surviving about all the interference possible in the early stages of the running. The Emery three-year-old had nothing to beat, yet started comparatively unbacked.

The governing committee of the Metropolitan Turf Association met this morning to consider a communication from Hon. John B. Stanchield, attorney for the Coney Island Jockey Club, to the effect that no hookmaking would be permitted at the coming Sheepshead Bay meeting under penalty of being excluded from the track and ruled off the turf. It was decided to defer to the request of the Coney Island Jockey Club and members of the "Mets" were immediately notified that they must not do business at the coming Sheepshead Bay meeting.

PLEASING PROSPECTS AT MONTREAL.

Montreal. Que., August 28.—The second annual fall meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club opens to-morrow at its beautiful Blue Bonnets course oack of Mount Royal. The club has provided a card that should bring out a banner attendance and for the first time since racing has been inaugurated in this section the racing secretary has material to draw from that should provide high-class racing. Stabled on the grounds are horses that could win in any section. There are several eastern owners well represented, while the cream of the western owners are here for the first time. Judge Frank J. Bryan, who at present is officiating in Baltimore, will be here on Monday and in his absence C. J. Fitzgerald will preside in the stand. The indications are for bright skies and a fast track.

PIMLICO FALL MEETING STAKES.

Baltimore, Md., August 28.—Stakes of the Maryland Jockey Club for its fall meeting have been announced. There are eight fixtures on the list and the closing date is October 1. Four of the races are for two year-olds, two for three-year-olds and upward, one a steeplechase and the remaining one the Amaleur Cup. The meeting will begin October 24 and continue to and including November 7. It has been announced that no purse of less than $400 in added money will be offered in flat races and that the minimum in added money for the steeplechases will be $500.

THE TWENTY-FIRST FUTURITY AT HAND.

This is Futurity day at Sheepshead Bay and the day of the twenty-first running of a race that has always evoked profound interest since Proctor Knott, Salvator and Galen struggled home together in a thrilling drive Monday, September 3, 1888, The race will not be run under the lively and inspiring conditions that have heretofore characterized its annual decision, but even with the absence of betting and the overabundance of petty official scrutiny there will be an attendance worthy of the occasion.

Whitney stables. There may be added starters, but it is hardly probable. A month ago it would have been said that the race was at the mercy of John E. Madden, but, as indicated in Daily Racing Form's New York dispatches, a different opinion prevails now. At the same time it is by no means improbable that the opinion of a month back may not have been correct. Races do not always go to favorites.

The ownership, breeding, weights, riders and probable odds against those named overnight to start, together with the best time at three-quarters, or nearest to that distance made by them are as follows:

The Futurity is the richest event of the American turf for two-year-olds and, even under the difficulties tending the carrying on of racing over New York tracks, will draw a great crowd to Sheepshead Bay deay to witness its decision. In value it has ranged from the $67,075 won by Potomac in 1890 down to be $26,640 that rewarded Colin's superiority in speed last year. It will probably be worth something ore to the owner of the winner this year than Colin won for Mr. Keene. COMING SALES OF YOUNG THOROUGHBREDS.

Many Richly-Bred Yearlings To Be Sold at Auction in the Next Week.

in the Next Week.

Beginning this afternoon the Fasig-Tinton Company will conduct a series of sales of thoroughbred yearlings, the product of the leading breeding farms of the country. The breeders have been in an unfortunate condition this year and are now forced to sell to clear their paddocks for the crop of next year. To them these sales are an experiment viewed with some hope of fair priess, but more tear of inadequal returns. It may be that they will be agreeably surprised. Racing is by no means dead in this country or Canada and a good horse is still able to win much money. Bargain hunters will be sure to be present and competition for the possession of well-bred and shapely youngsters is as certain to be an occasional feature of the sales as it ear has been.

The yearlings from the Runnynede and Raceland Studs are to be sold this afternoon. Annually the yearlings from these farms have heretofore brought high prices and the results of this afternoon will be regarded as an index to the market. They are the brogeny mainly of the successful sires Sir Dixon, Star Shoot, Bridgewater and Orlando, one native and three imported. Other sires represented are Ben Brush, Mazgan, Miller, Ogden, St. Evox and Tanzmeister, and among the youngsters to be sold are full brothers or sisters to Memories, Running Water, Agile, Tradition, Whimsical, Chalfonte, Dander, Melissa and Etherial and half-rothers or sisters to Uncle, Heknows, Nones, Albert, Star, Blues, Blue Girl, Senator Beckham, Black Mary, Libertine, Meedo, Ascot Belle, Cambrian, Red Tip and many other swift and successful racers.

Monday and Tuesday will be devoted to the sale of yearlings consigned by Milton Young, B. E. Allen, Engene Rucker, J. D. Carr, M. E. Stone and Thomas Platt, being the progeny of such well-known stallions as Cesarion. Nasturtium, Monsieur de L'Orne. Sempronius, Woolshoppe, Alloway, Ben Brush, Box, Broomstick, Cameron, Dieudonne, Golden Maxim, Intrusive, King's Counsel, Kingston, Larchmont, Maplehurst and Millstream Stud farms. In the veri

NEW YORK PRIMARIES REBUKE GOV. HUGHES

New York, August 28 .- The recent primaries in

New York August 28.—The recent primarles in New York state was almost a direct declaration against Governor Hughes and his policies.

There was a distinct renomination issue in Albany county, where the anti-Hughes forces won a signal victory. And in the Niagara-Orleans district, where a special election was held last spring lu order to give the governor senatorial vote, the voters virtually instructed for James W. Wadsworth. Jr. Of Onondaga county the clearly defined issue there was the gubernatorial candidacy of Senator Horace White of Syracuse, as opposed to the renomination of Governor Hughes. In every nrimary district the organization favoring Senator White's candidacy won practically unanimously.

Anti-Hughes delegates were selected from Putnam and Columbia counties and from one of the two assembly districts of Dutchess county.

It is significant that in Schenectady not only were anti-Hughes delegates elected, but that the senator from that district. W. W. Wemple, who voted against the racing bills, was renominated, which indicates, although the complete returns are not to hand, that Schenectady. Montgomery and Scholarie are all arrayed in opposition to the blue-law governor.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY'S GREAT RACING CARD.

Nearly All the Best Horses in Training Entered-Futurity Riders and Odds.

New York, August 28.—Futurity day card is a first-class one. Nearly every great horse in training here is entered in the various races. Ordinarily such a solendid array of turf attractions would attract 30,000 devotees of the sport, but the anti-racing crusade has nut such a baneful blight on racing that probably not more than 10,000 loyal racegoers will be present to see them run off.

One of the smallest fields in its history will start in the richest of American stakes, the Futurity of 1908. Seven of the nine starters are from James R. Keene's, John E. Madden's and Harry Payne Whitney's establishments, the remaining two belouging to August Belmont and Herman B. Durvea, Maskette is an overwhelming favorite for the great fixture among all classes of race-goors. There are almost no dissenters among horsemen and experts, nor are any of the others much considered for second place except her stable companion, Helmet. The probable starters, riders and odds overnight are as follows:

VAN METER'S STABLE FOR SANTA ANITA.

Lexington. Ky., August 28.—Charles C. Van Meter has decided to race at Santa Anita the coming winter and today completed his string of eleven with the purchase of five yearlings which were shipped to Louisville tonight. Mr. Van Meter bought from R. L. Baker and John S. Barbee a chestnut celt by Allan-a-Dale—Anna Bain and from J. L. Luke the following four; chestnut gelding (brother to Fashion Plate), by Woolsthorpe—Fashionable; bay filly (half-sister to Polly Prim), by Nasturtium—Kosmo; brown filly (half-sister to Cigarlighter), by Cesarion—The Empress, and chestnut filly (sister to Lady Arion), by Cesarion—Lady Ellerslie H. SANFORD HORSES TO RACE AT SHEEPSHEAD.

New York, Angust 28.—The Sanford colors will be seen in the Sheepshead Bay races. General Sanford will send them to New York racing because he believes that it is his dut—to the sport in its trying days to do so. William Hayward, Jr., who made out pretty well at the Springs, considering that Vails, Van Den, Duncragsen and other good horses went back on him, and that the handsome Mohawk II. broke a leg his second time out, will come down from Amsterdam with two carloads of various ages early next week.

The most useful horses of the Sanford stable this season are the mares Mayfield and Danoscara. Kennyetto has become a little sulking hussy. Hayward has a useful colt in the three-year-old Sir John Johnson, although it is improbable that that son of Isidor may train into as steady a campaigner as were Caughnawaga and Chuctanunda, his most distinguished relatives.

CONEY ISLAND BARS TELEGRAPHIC WIRES.

New York, August 28.—The Coney Island Jockey Club officials, despite the insolent declaration on the part of Assistant Prosecutor Elder that they were not sincere and couldn't fool him, are taking every possible step against betting at the meeting which begins tomorrow. The newspaper reports will go out by telephone. All business relations with the Western Union Telegraph Company have been severed for "various reasons," as director Parsons, Mr. Vanderbilt's representative, puts it. The censorship against poolroom information will be stricter during the Sheepshead Bay meeting than at any time since the Jockey Club made its agreement to shut off such information,

NEAR FORT ERIE'S FINISH.

BUT ONE MORE DAY OF AN EXTREMELY SUC-CESSFUL MEETING REMAINS.

Jockey Powers Stars with Four Winners-Royal Onyx Runs the Fastest Three-Quarters of the Meeting.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 28.—The big fields starting in short scrambles brought about many surprises this afternoon at Fort Erie. The attendance again was extra large. The most unpleasant incident of the afternoon came with the running of the fourth race, at three-quarters, in which some good horses started, including Lawrence P. Daley. The latter was making his first appearance since his Derby victory on the opening day. On previous form the Cook crack seemed to hold his opponents safe and was promptly installed favorite at a short price. Lawrence P. Daley, at the start bolted from an inside position and impeded Superstition, causing both to be practically left. The mishap eliminated both as serious factors in the running, allowing Royal Onyx and Alencon to fight it out to the finish. Superstition gaining third place after a sharp drive in the last furlong. The crowd, not having seen the mishap at the start, gave vent to unjust outcries against Nicol, who rode Lawrence P. Daley, and made it uncomfortable for that rider until he passed into the scales room. Aside from the crowd's hostile attitude toward Nicol, the race was noteworthy for the unexpected improvement shown by Royal Onyx in running the six furlongs in 1:12£, the fastest of the meeting.

A form reversal came in the last race when Lady Esther showed superior speed and never left the result in doubt, winning with ridiculous ease from Bitter Hand and Quagga. Dr. Lee Huffman, her recent conqueror, failed to finish within straking distance of the winner. Fred Slocum, the bookmaker, laboring under a fancied grievance, bid Lady Esther showed superior speed and never left the result in doubt, winning with ridiculous ease from Bitter Hand and Quagga. Dr. Lee Huffman, her recent conqueror, failed to finish within straking distance of the winner. Fred Slocum, the bookmaker, laboring under a fancied grievance, bid Lady Esther up from an entered price of $400 to $1,000.

LOUISVILLE GOES WITH LATONIA.

No Bookmaking, No Fall Racing Is the Cella Stand -Holding Company Will Fail.

Louisville, Ky., August 28.—It will be a case of "paddle your own canoe" as far as the two racing associations of this city are concerned in the future. Douglas Park and Churchill Downs are at present controlled by a holding company, and a split is threatened. Each track is in the company for $300,000, making the total capital $600,000. The rock on which the split came is the betting question. L. A. Cella and his associates, who own Douglas Park, are satisfied that it will be impossible to conduct a race meeting with a profit with the pari-mutuel system of betting.

Colonel Charles F. Grainger, Colonel Matt Wina and their associates, who control the New Louisville Jockey Club, are of a different coninon. Colonel Grainger is also a member of the Racing Commission, which has placed itself on record as being opposed to any form of betting excepting the parimutuel.

It seems that an effort has been made to get Colonel Grainger to change his attitude on the system of wagering, but it is said that he has declined to do. So, and for this resistance.

It seems that an effort has been made to get Colonel Grainger to change his attitude on the system of wazering, but it is said that he has declined to do so, and for this reason each of the Louisville Jockey Clubs will in the future go it alone. Douglas Park will make application for fall dates, with bookmaking. If the commission declines to allow the bookmakers to come on, the matter will go to the courts. Latonia will also ask for dates, with bookmaking.

As the matter stands at present, it is hard to see how a clash can be avoided between the racing organizations and the Racing Commission, and it is sure to come unless somebody runs out before the time arrives.

The question that will come up is the one involving the right of the commission to dictate the form of wagering, and if that is decided in favor of the commission, the latter's right of existence will then be made a legal question.

ADAM SOON STARTS FOR FRANCE.

Trainer Welsh to Take the Big Horse and Twenty-

Trainer Tom Welsh of the Newcastle Stable will start from New York for France September 19 with the stallion Adam and twenty-three broodmares, the property of the Millstream Stud, of which Andrew property of the Millstream Stud, of which Andrew Miller and Frank C. Bishop are part owners. Mr. Bishop bought Adam in France two years ago for $75,000 and brought him to this country for breeding purposes. As Adam is highly thought of on the other side, Mr. Bishop believes that he can get some of his money back by selling him and the mares in foal to him at auction in France. The horse was imported from France on Welsh's judgment. He saw him race and has always insisted that he was one of the best horses he ever saw. Welsh worked Adam a mile in 1:44 under 1:30 pounds over the Horse Haven track at Saratoga shortly after his arrival in this country. Adam did this work without turning a hair. Welsh wanted to put him in training forthwith. Bishop, however, would not agree to any such scheme. He said he had bought the horse for the stud and to the stud he must go without delay.

BALLOT WORKING AGAIN AT SHEEPSHEAD.

New York, August 28.—Ballot is at Sheepshead Bay taking mild exercise with the rest of the Keene horses. Ballot stood the trip from Saratoga Springs well and Rowe is confident that he will get to the post in winning form in both the $20,000 Century, run Saturday, September 5, and the $25,000 Annual Champion race, run Saturday, September 12, the best specials of the fall meeting at Sheepshead Bay. He is also in next Wednesday's Twin City, Handicap, but will hardly go in it.

MUD RUNNERS DAY AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., August 28.—Track conditions at The Meadows were even worse today than yesterday, owing to continued rain and genuine mud runers carried off the prizes. Maud McG., Captain Burnett and Old Settler made up a trio of winning outsiders for which there was seant support in the betting ring. Laura Clay and Horace H. scored as favorites and Tony Faust, the remaining winner, alternated in favoritism with Mizzer, although the latter actually had the call at post time. Mizzer's backers were unlucky to lose, for Tony Faust broke across him at the start and jockey Koerner managed to keep Harris, who was riding Mizzer, in such close quarters for the first half mile that to get clear sailing. Harris finally had to pull up and go to the outside. This gave Tony Faust the race, for, although Mizzer gamely made up nearly all of the several lengths lost, he failed to get up by a short head, although gaining rapidly in the closing trieds.

The judges have restored the stable of C. B. Dan-strides. The judges have restored the stable of C. B. Dan-iels to good standing, with the exception of the horse Jack Witt, whose inconsistent running pro-voked a ruling against Daniels recently. Evidence was lacking that Daniels profited to any great ex-tent by Jack Witt's reversal of form. Jockey Walsh's thumb was dislocated anew dur-ing the running of the first race and his other en-gagements for the day were cancelled.

TUBE THROATED PROSPECTOR WINS WELL

D. R. Browning's Pioneer—Kendall Belle colt. Prospector, the English three-year-old which was at one time last winter second choice for the Epsom Derby, has been "tubed" for thick wind. The practice of putting silver pipes in horses throats is common in England, through the climate of which many great horses become "noisy" out of throat and upper lung troubles. August 13, at Kempton Park. Prospector took up 136 pounds and, at 10 to 1 in the betting, easily won the Princess Handicap from thirteen horses, giving Niobe, which finished second to him, no less than thirty-nine pounds. In 1907 Prospector, as a two-year-old, only started four times, won the Hurstbourne Stakes at Salisbury, the Coventry Stakes at Ascot and the Surrey Stakes at Hurst Park. His only defeat was by Olympus in the Kennet Stakes at Newbure in which he gave the winner fifteen pounds.

STAMINA FIT FOR FALL ENGAGEMENTS.

New York, August 28,—Trainer Joyner considers that the Whitney mare, Stamina, is the most improved horse of her sex in eastern training this fall. Joyner believes that Stamina is recovering her strength and vitality. The North Carolina turfman did not consider her anything like herself at any time during the spring or summer. She is in the following stakes at Sheepshead Bay: Fall Handicap, Twin City Handicap, Ocean Handicap, Century Stakes, Omnium Handicap and Annual Champion Stakes.

Chicago fable writers declare in telegraphic fan cies sent out broadcast that President Dave Barner of the City Park track of New Orleans is Ed Corrigan's son-in-law. As a matter of fact, Mr. Corrigan has no children and Mr. Barnes is only a distan relative of his.

Public betting on a large scale was stopped at Galesburg, Knox county, Ill., Thursday. Ira Rice and John Gordon, who paid the association for the privileges, will fight the case. The action was taken on a warrant sworn out by Thomas Holloway, of Knoxville, Ill.

Knoxville, Ill.

It is estimated that in the face of extremely bad weather and much general annoyance the Empire City Racing Association will lose less than $20,000 on the Yonkers meeting. If the weather last Saturday had been pleasant the association would have probably been able to get close to an even break.

W. D. Randall's four-year-old horse, Bille Ayres, fast animal among his own kind in the west, was killed at Butte. Mont., a few days ago, after break high a shoulder in contention. He was Oregon-bread and by Salvator, out of Wild Lass,

The fickle New York racing public no longer be lieves that Walter Miller and E. Dugan are good riders and are worshiping at the riding shrines of J. Butler, J. Bergen, Lee and Shilling In only the latter boy probably will they find lasting comfort. Notter is not what he was, to New York racing notion.

David Taylor, an ex-jockey, was killed at Paterson, N. J., Thursday last. The Paterson papers declare Taylor to have been famous and to have ridden the winners of $100,000 in races in this country and to have been astride the winner of the English Derby twenty-five years ago. Of course their declaration is erroneous.

Wifiner—H. Green's br. 1, 74 by Marion.
Went to post at 2:49. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily: second and third driving.
Mand McG. opened a big early gap and stuck it out well. Billy Watkins, outrun early, closed a gap.
Bud Embry tired. Cork Hill finished well after steadily falling back in the first half.
Scratched—(76576)Complaint, 94.
Overweights—Bud Embry, 2 pounds.
